TAKE A THOUGHT-PROVOKING SPIRITUAL JOURNEY TOWARD OPENNESS, COMPASSION, AND FAITH

Robert P. Crosby has just authored his sixth book, Get Unstuck from Fundamentalism: A Spiritual Journey.

Dedicated to his grandchildren, grandnieces, etc. as a “guide through the fog of life,” the book was written while vacationing in Italy to open conversation with his children and grandchildren regarding the influence of religious fundamentalism/literalism in the world today. It has been called a “remarkable little volume” and is said to be “filled with wisdom.” It blends the splendor of Italy with an opportunity to explore new perspectives on what it means to live an authentic and moral life.

Robert Crosby has pursued his quest for spirituality and a desire to guide others in their excitement for knowledge throughout his life and several careers. He was first ordained in the United Methodist Church in 1953 and, later, was on the national staff of that church. He holds a B.A. from Otterbein College and degrees from the United Theological Seminary (Master of Divinity), Boston University School of Theology (Master of Sacred Theology) and an honorary doctorate, Doctor of Humane Letters (LHD), from Bastyr University. He taught at Gonzaga University. In 1969, he founded the Leadership Institute of Spokane (now Seattle) LIOS and has taught in a Masters degree program since 1973, most recently at Martin University (named for Martin Luther King and St. Martin de Porres) in Indianapolis.

A passion for understanding social systems and emotional intelligence made has Bob a highly regarded consultant. He has demonstrated a unique ability to lead groups confronting contentious issues and has proven to be skilled at building a trusting and open environment for discussion.

He and his wife Patricia reside in Seattle. They collectively have 10 children, 14 grandchildren, one god-grandchild in Ukraine, and one great-grandchild.

The book is scheduled for publication Spring 2006. A pre-publication version of the book is available upon request. In addition, more information is available at the website www.getunstuck.org.
